THE PROBLEM

How do you recruit, retain, and re-energize employees when human resources budgets are being cut?

One of the most effective ways to attract and retain employees is to invest in their well-being in both work and life.

75%

of HR executives think their benefits offering is innovative but only 50% of workers agree.

(COMMONBOND)

Multiple studies have identified ways happy employees outperform unhappy ones, including:

Having 26% fewer clinical errors

Having 79% less burnout

Being 61%* less likely to leave

Being 31% more productive

Increasing sales by 37%

HOW CAN WE HELP?

Recruit and retain talent by providing access to savings on products, services, and experiences they need and love.

Electronics, appliances, apparel, cars, groceries, fitness memberships, insurance, and financial services, as well as experiences they love – like travel, events, movies, attractions, and more.

WHY WORKING ADVANTAGE?

We provide more than 40K corporations with access to an employee savings platform reaching over 50 million employees.

We are not only the largest perks program in the country, we have also successfully worked with over 70% of the nation's top employers to help expand their health and wellness programs.
